KANER'S RESTAURANT OF THE WEEK

KING'S PAVILION

OPENED A FEW weeks ago, this spacious, 200-seat Chinese dining place is a handsome addition to the Queens scene. Located on the site of the former Bayside Mansion, its decor is largely similar to its previous setting, minus the usual expected Chinese theme. The restaurant features an attractive blonde-wood cocktail lounge and bar at the entrance. To the left of the bar is a good-looking, large dining room, with windows facing the street level. The dining room features blonde-wood decor, including blonde-wood chairs with beige upholstery. The cuisines are Cantonese and Szechuan. The menu is extensive and varied, with more than 95 dishes available. Dishes are attractively prepared and well presented. Portions are good-sized, and it takes a hearty appetite to complete dinner here. On request, MSG, salt, sugar or starch can be omitted on request. The restaurant also offers a large party room in the rear, and an outdoor garden room is planned.
